

I'm opposed to the rule changes in broadcast ownership because diversity in ownership of such media will foster competition and availability of diverse programming and information.